Order from: Order online on the Internet

Restrictions: Must register online and be approved.

Notes: Within the Department of Defense, the Ballistic Missile Defense Organization (BMDO) is responsible for managing, directing, and executing the Ballistic Missile Defense (BMD) Program. The program focuses on three areas: Theater Missile Defense (TMD), National Missile Defense (NMD), and advanced ballistic missile defense technologies. The Ballistic Missile Defense Organization's (BMDO) Technical Information Center (TIC) serves as the primary repository for technical, scientific and managerial information for the BMDO and the greater ballistic missile defense community. The TIC uploads all BMDO documents on their Website.
